

Do you know the two cats that live in this little blue house, on the corner of Fee Street and Line Road?

Their names are Olivia and Miles. But, Miles likes to be known as The Mush. Why? Nobody knows...

Olivia is a Russian blue cat. Is she really blue? Does she look blue to you?

How old is Olivia? She's only eight months old. She grew up in the office of a doctor who takes care of animals. So, going to a home with only two other people in it, Ma and Pa, is a big change for her.

And then...there's Miles. Most people call him The Mush. (I still don't know why.) He's a Russian Blue, too.

The Mush is eleven months old, and he comes from a home for animals who don't have a home. So, going to a home with only two other people in it, Ma and Pa, is a big change for him, too.

Do you think that Olivia and The Mush will like each other? Let's see what they like to do first.

Olivia likes to run. She likes to run...

Up the stairs...

Down the stairs...

Through the kitchen...

And from room to room!

Poor Ma! She never knows what Olivia will do next.
